1.3 At the Pretrial Conference, the Pretrial Judge or Magistrate shall have authority to decide any undetermined preliminary matters and to record any admissions, stipulations or agreements; to hear and decide the case with the consent of the parties; to make whatever findings, orders, judgments or decrees which may be warranted or proper under the circumstances and within the scope of the spirit of the Civil Rules; to set the case for trial or dismissal, or take other appropriate action under Civil Rule 37 if counsel fails to appear. The Judge or Magistrate and counsel may take any further action at the Pretrial Conference as authorized in Rule 16 of the Civil Rules.

1.4 The statements of counsel made in the course of any Pretrial Conference shall not be binding on the parties unless expressly made so by written stipulation in the course of the Pretrial Conference.

1.5 Within ten (10) days following the Pretrial Conference, counsel, when directed by the Judge or Magistrate, shall prepare and submit for approval an order reflecting all matters stipulated by counsel and all orders made by the Pretrial Judge or Magistrate, and said orders shall control all further proceedings in the action, subject to the provisions of Rule 60 of the Civil Rules.

In addition, the Judge or Magistrate shall have the authority to proceed with all or any portion of the case and to decide and determine any or all matters ex-parte upon failure of the Plaintiff or Defendant to appear in person or by counsel at Pretrial Conference. In addition, the Judge or Magistrate may transfer the matter to the inactive docket of this Court.

B. Criminal Pretrials

1.0 A Defendant has a right to be present at any Pretrial hearing, and has no obligation to engage in any discussion which may constitute an admission or be considered incriminating. If represented by Counsel, the Defendant may discuss any matters raised during a Pretrial hearing in private with Counsel, and the Pretrial may be continued either to a later time of day the Pretrial was set, or to a later date. Failure of a Defendant or his or her counsel to attend a Pretrial Conference, without just cause, shall extend the speedy trial time computation.

1.1 The Local Rules of Procedure of this Court for civil cases apply to all criminal cases including Pretrial Conferences, and such other proceedings, except where clearly inapplicable.

1.2 Where subsequent Pretrial Conferences are necessary, such Pretrial Conferences shall be set by the Court immediately upon the conclusion of the hearing where a subsequent Pretrial Conference is determined to further the case to its conclusion. Counsel shall have his or her calendar or schedule of appointments present to facilitate the efficient scheduling of the Court's Docket.

1.3 Arraignments continued and combined with a Pretrial Conference do not require a plea from a defendant, unless the Court determines that a plea is necessary to satisfy speedy trial concerns, or where the Defendant's conduct during an Arraignment and Pretrial Conference requires, in the opinion of the Court, the entry of a plea. Pursuant to law, the Court may enter a plea of Not Guilty at any Arraignment and Pretrial Conference.

1.4 Where negotiations are entered into to resolve the matter or any part of the case (where multiple charges are filed), the parties shall clearly state the full agreement of the disposition of the matter on the record. The Court is not bound by any agreed disposition unless and until it gives an indication of approval of the tendered agreement. Failure to include all considerations pertaining to a plea agreement, including but not limited to direct or indirect sentencing, actual incarceration, probation, matters pertaining to a defendant's operator's license, impoundment or immobilization of a defendant's license plates and automobile, restitution, fines and costs, shall allow the Court, in its discretion, to accept or reject any and all proffers of any negotiated plea agreement.

1.5 Where a Defendant is unrepresented by counsel and agrees to accept a negotiated plea agreement, he or she must, before the Court accepts such agreement, be advised of the rights he or she is foregoing by the entry of a plea of guilty or no contest. Where a Defendant is represented by Counsel, Counsel shall state on the record that the Defendant was advised of the effect of the entry of a plea of guilty or no contest and the rights he or she has foregone by the entry of such plea. Only until the Court is satisfied that the negotiated plea is entered into voluntarily, knowingly, and understandingly can the Court accept such plea.

1.6 Where no disposition of the matter occurs at any Pretrial Conference, the Court shall set the matter for trial. If, in the opinion of the Court, a Status Conference may be of benefit to the parties or the Court, the Court shall also set a Status Conference. Such Status Conference shall require all parties to be present and to indicate to the Court any and all matters which may be disposed of prior to trial. Motions in limine and proposed Jury Instructions shall be submitted to the Court at least three days before the date of the Status Conference, unless an extension is permitted by the Court.

RULE 12. ORDERS AND DECREES

A. Unless the Court otherwise directs, counsel for the party in whose favor an order, decree, or judgment is rendered, shall within five (5) days thereafter prepare a judgment entry, and submit it to counsel for the adverse party, who shall approve or reject the same within five (5) days after the receipt thereof. When approved by counsel, it shall be submitted to the Trial Judge or Magistrate for approval. If counsel are unable to agree upon the form of the entry, or if the same is prepared and submitted by the counsel in whose favor the order, decree or judgment is rendered, and counsel for the adverse party fails, neglects or refuses to either sign or return such entry, counsel in whose favor the order, decree or judgment is rendered shall prepare a copy of such entry and submit the copy to the Trial Judge or Magistrate with a notation thereon that the same has been submitted to counsel for the adverse party. Thereafter, the Trial Judge or Magistrate will direct what entry shall be made, or shall approve and file the copy entry submitted.

B. In any event, within fifteen (15) days after verdict, decree order or decision, the judgment entry shall be filed unless opposing counsel reside out of the county and in which event three (3) additional days shall be allowed for each such counsel. If an entry is not presented for filing within such time, counsel, upon notification from the Court or Magistrate, shall appear before the Court or Magistrate and state on the record the reasons therefore.

C. Counsel shall promptly submit an order of dismissal following settlement of a case. If counsel fails to do so within twenty (20) days after representation to the Court or Magistrate that the case has been settled, the Trial Judge or Magistrate may dismiss the case without prejudice for want of prosecution or file a judgment entry of settlement in accordance with the representations made to the Court or Magistrate, and assess costs. The Court or Magistrate may also sua sponte transfer any matter to the inactive docket upon being advised that the cause has been settled.
